Worship through the Ages: A concert of sacred choral music

Thursday, April 6 at 7:30pm  Phillippe Auditorium

The IWU Singers will present their spring concert, Worship through the Ages. This concert will lead the audience through an overview of many centuries of choral music used in worship, beginning in the Spanish renaissance with music of Tomas Luis de Victoria then moving toward the stirring setting of Johann Sebastian Bach’s Jesus bleibet meine freude (Jesus Joy of Man’s Desiring). The journey continues with Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart’s Dies Irae from his Requiem mass, Mendelssohn’s choral setting of “He, Watching Over Israel,” from Elijah, and an arrangement of Charles Wesley’s hymn, “Oh for a Thousand Tongues.” From the modern era, the choir will perform a setting of the Te Deum (by John Rutter), a camp-meeting song by G. T Speer, “Bless the Lord” from Taize worship, and some gospel arrangements of hymns and praise and worship songs by Bradley Knight including “The Comforter Has Come,” “You Are Holy,” and “You Are Welcome.” It is our prayer that you will be encouraged in faith and trust in God, who is faithful to every generation.
