“In Eurydice, Sarah Ruhl reimagines the classic myth of Orpheus through the eyes of its heroine. Dying too young on her wedding day, Eurydice must journey to the underworld, where she reunites with her father and struggles to remember her lost love. With contemporary characters, ingenious plot twists, and breathtaking visual effects, the play is a fresh look at a timeless love story” (Samuel French).

Tickets go on sale Monday, October 9th at the Box Office and online

From the Director's Desk

I was reminded today by one of my student employees that every month that starts on a Sunday also includes a Friday the 13th. Now, I already knew that little nugget of information, but when I heard it today, it caused me to pause for a moment and reflect on it.

Now I'm sure you are asking yourself what this tidbit of resurrected knowledge has to do with this month's newsletter. Well, October starts on a Sunday and includes a Friday the 13th. What a coincidence!!!

And what is going on in the Phillippe Performing Arts Center on Friday the 13th? On that day, IWU's Theatre and Music Departments will be presenting the second to last performance of You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown at 7:30pm.

This performance will take you back to the days of cartoon watching and comic strip reading and bring a sense of joy to your heart.

Make the evening of Friday, October 13th a time of joy and laughter as you join us for a great performance. See you there!

Phil Huber
Interim Director

Phillippe Presents

IWU Orchestra presents A Mighty Fortress

Tuesday, November 7th @ 7:30pm

Phillippe Auditorium

The concert will feature renowned guest artist, Stephen Clark performing Mozart's Flute Concerto in G Major. He is recipient of the 2016 Sir James Galway Rising Star Award and gives more than 200 performances per year worldwide.

The orchestra will perform Mendelssohn's "Reformation" Symphony in honor of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. The work ends with a grand fantasia on the hymn tune A Mighty Fortress. The night will open with Johann Straus's Overture to Die Fledermaus conducted by Mr. Davy Chinn in anticipation of the upcoming performances of the full opera in the spring. Tickets go on sale Monday, October 9th at the Box Office and online.

General admission: $10* Students/Seniors: $5* Children 12 and under are free
Mr. Clark will also be sharing his musical gifts during a guest recital on Monday, November 6th at 7:30pm in Baker Recital Hall. Admission is free for this recital event.

Grace Alone: A celebration of the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation

Tuesday, November 14th @ 7:30pm

Phillippe Auditorium

The IWU Singers will present, Grace Alone, a concert on the music and influence of the Reformation. This concert will center on the three solas that came to define the movement- Sola gracia (only grace), Sola fide (only faith), and Sola scriptura (only scripture). We will sing classic works by Martin Luther (A Mighty Fortress, Morning and Evening Prayers, I Shall Not Die But Live) and J.S. Bach (Jesus bleibet meine Freude) as well as modern arrangements of gospel songs and hymns (Crosby, Whittle, and Newton). Tickets go on sale Monday, October 9th at the Box Office and online.

General admission: $5* Groups of 3 or more: $10* Children 12 and under are free
All proceeds will go to hurricane relief efforts via World Hope.

IWU Wind Ensemble Fall Concert

Wednesday, November 15th @ 7:30pm

Phillippe Auditorium

This concert will feature the music of John Williams, John Barnes Chance, John Philip Sousa and Samuel Hazo. There will be patriotic selections mixed with sacred music and concert band favorites. The ensemble will also deliver a premiere performance of Jim Stephenson's Luther: In Canon, a piece written for the IWU Wind Ensemble to commemorate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. This concert will be conducted by Michael Flanagin and Dr. Chris Lessly. Admission is free for this event.

Friday, November 3rd at 8:45pm
Phillippe Auditorium

Friday Night Live has been an IWU tradition for the past twenty-two years. The goal of the show is to provide a break from stress to not only the students, but the faculty and surrounding community of IWU and Marion. The cast finds meaning in fighting a war on stress, by laughing about life through cleverly written sketches and silly videos. Come to this event for a night of fun, laughter and no stress.

Tickets go on sale Monday, October 9th at the Box Office and online.
